

Provision of Veterinary Services to First Nations Reserves

(March 26, 2003)

It is the policy of the council of the College of Veterinarians of Ontario that veterinarians who wish to provide veterinary services on First Nations Reserves from a companion animal mobile must meet the requirements for accreditation of a companion animal mobile and may approach the college for an exemption to the CVO policy Companion Animal Mobile Services Locations.